I acknowledge receipt of a separate list of counties comprising the jurisdiction of United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania.

I understand that if I violate any condition of my release, a warrant for my arrest will issue immediately. After arrest, the terms and conditions of any further release will be redetermined.

Violation of any of the foregoing conditions of release may result in the immediate issuance of a warrant for the defendant's arrest, a revocation or release, an order of detention, as provided in 18 U.S.C. §3148, and a prosecution for failure to appear while released as provided in 18 U.S.C. §3146, and a charge of contempt, as provided in 18 U.S.C. §401, which could result in a possible term of imprisonment and/or fine.

The Commission of any offense while on pretrial release will result in an additional sentence, upon conviction for such offense, to a term of imprisonment of not more than ten years, if the offense is a felony; or a term of imprisonment of not more than one year, if the offense is a misdemeanor. This sentence shall be consecutive to any other sentence and must be imposed in addition to the sentence received for the offense itself.

18 U.S.C. §1503 makes it a criminal offense punishable by up to five years in jail and a $250,000 fine to intimidate or attempt to intimidate a witness, juror or officer of the court; 18 U.S.C §1510 makes it a criminal offense punishable by up to five years in jail and a $250,000 fine to obstruct a criminal investigation; 18 U.S.C. §1512 makes it a criminal offense punishable by up to ten years in prison and a $250,000 fine to tamper with a witness, victim or informant; and 18 U.S.C. §1513 makes it a criminal offense punishable up to ten years in jail and $250,000 fine to retaliate against a witness, victim or informant, or threaten or attempt to do so.

It is a criminal offense under 18 U.S.C. §3146, if after having been released, the defendant knowingly fails to appear as required by the conditions of release, or to surrender for the service of sentence pursuant to a court order. If the defendant was released in connection with a charge, or while awaiting sentence, surrender for the service of a sentence, or appeal or certiorari after conviction, for:

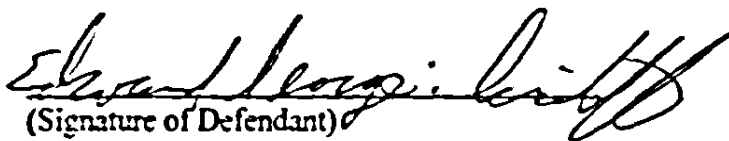

- (1) an offense punishable by death, life imprisonment, or imprisonment for a term of fifteen years or more, the defendant may be fined not more than $250,000 or imprisoned not more than ten years, or both;
- (2) any other offense punishable by imprisonment for a term of five years or more, but less than fifteen years, the defendant may be fined not more than $250,000 or imprisoned for not more than five years, or both;

- (4) a misdemeanor, the defendant may be fined not more than $100,000 or imprisoned not more than one year or both.

A term of imprisonment imposed for failure to appear or surrender shall be consecutive to the sentence of imprisonment for any other offense. In addition, a failure to appear may result in the forfeiture of any bail posted.

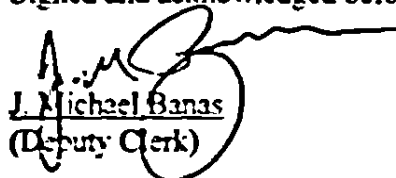

And further, I do hereby empower any Attorney of any Court of Record within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or elsewhere to appear for me and, with or without one or more declarations filed, confess judgment against me and in favor of the United States of America for the above sum with costs of suit, and release of all errors and without stay of execution, inquisition and extension upon any levy of personal property or real estate is hereby waived and condemnation agreed to, and the exemption of personal property from levy and sale on any execution herein is also expressly waived and no benefit of exemption shall be claimed under and by virtue of any exemption law now in force or which may be hereafter passed.
